

I understand that the banking community is seeking to weaken the law in Indiana regarding unwanted phone calls from salesmen. I have been so pleased with the no call list I would hate to see it weakened.